

Reading response prompts- beginning 9/13

Reading response one: Please write about the protagonist of your book. Describe them as a character without relying on their physical appearance. What are they like?

What character have you connected to in the book most to keep you reading? Give details.