

Object Speech

Speaker: You!

Audience: Mrs. Verwys and your classmates

Purpose: To introduce yourself to the audience through a comparison or relationship to a found object. The object you choose should represent you in various aspects of your life, such as:

personality	habits	lifestyle	interests	values
family	life	goals	physical characteristics
future plans	attitude	friends	likes or dislikes

Time limit: 2:00-4:00 minutes

Found Object: The object that you choose must:

1. Be present (no photograph of the object)
2. Be school appropriate
3. Be transportable and fit through my classroom door

Expectations:

Outline: typed, printed and due: _____

Note cards: in class on your assigned date

Attendance: should you miss your speech date for any reason, you will receive a one letter grade deduction. Arrange your schedule BEFORE your speech date.

Attire: Look professional (nice clothes, no words on shirts, take a shower, brush your teeth)

Audience: You are going to be responsible for asking one thoughtful follow-up question to the speaker. So be an active listener during each speech!

Due Date:

Your speaking date is: _____